Read John 3:16. What stands out to you?

What does this passage teach us about the overwhelming love of God?

Read Micah 7:18-19. What stands out to you?

What does this passage teach us about God's overwhelming love for us?

What does this passage teach us about how God deals with our sins?

If God can cast our sins into the depths of the sea then what should we do with all the excuses we may have for why God might not love us?

If someone told you that they felt unlovable and God could never love them how would you respond to them? Do you need to listen to your own words?

Let's spend some time praying together.
