Read Philippians 2:14-16. What stands out to you?

Why does this passage call us not to complain or argue?

How do we know when we are complaining?

What helps you to not complain?

How do we know when we are arguing?

As Christians instead of arguing how can we better have conversations where we glorify Jesus when we may disagree with someone?

How does the model of Jesus call us to live lives without complaining or arguing?

Why will we shine like stars if we simply don't complain or argue?

Is your attitude one that is being a good witness to others and may help them want to know Jesus more?

Let's spend some time praying together.
